The screenshot shows a web development project in VS Code. The left sidebar displays the file explorer for a project named 'TravelWorld-main'. The main editor shows the 'index.html' file, which is a Bootstrap 4 template. The code includes a <!-- Header --> comment and a  section with a  and  containing a  with a  and a  containing a  and a  with a <ul class='d-flex flex-row align-items-start justify-content-start'>.
